

Letter of Reference

September 30, 2025

Arne Testrote, born on April 4, 2001, was employed at our company from July 1, 2025 to September 30, 2025, 40 hours per week as an Intern in our Advisory Business Recovery Services department.

The main tasks and responsibilities of Arne Testrote were as follows:

- Contributed to several sell-side (accelerated) M&A processes including the preparation of long lists for potential investors and transaction documents such as investment teasers, information memorandum and management presentations
- Analyzed maturity profiles within refinancing projects in the sport and retail real estate sector
- Supported in the preparation of an independent business review in the e-mobility sector including market and competitors analysis

During the internship, Arne was highly committed at all times, carrying out all the tasks independently and to our utmost satisfaction. Arne proved to be a very mature, conscientious and motivated team member, able to work under pressure and to tight deadlines.

He communicated openly with colleagues and managers, and was highly appreciated by the team, our company, and our clients.

We wish Arne all the best and every success for the future, both personally and professionally.
