INTERNSHIP CERTIFICATE

Mr. Viet Duc Do, born on 29.12.2003, completed an internship in the field of Mergers & Acquisitions and Corporate Finance at our company from 01.12.2024 to 28.02.2025.

INNOFINCENTA GmbH advises companies, especially start-ups and small- to medium-sized enterprises from a wide range of industries, in various financing phases. The firm specializes in capital raising, structuring tailored financing solutions, and optimizing financial strategies.

Beyond M&A advisory, INNOFINCENTA has a strong track record in leveraged buyouts and plays an active role in post-acquisition leadership, with its managing partners frequently serving as interim executives and strategic advisors. The firm also collaborates with financial investors to guide the strategic development of numerous companies.

During his internship, Mr. Do was able to gain extensive experience within the following fields of tasks:

M&A and Strategic Management

- Conducted in-depth buyer research and maintained structured investor contact lists to optimize the sales process of a SaaS company
- Compiled and maintained investor contact lists, ensuring a structured and targeted approach to potential buyers
- Actively participated in M&A calls with potential buyers, gaining firsthand exposure to deal negotiations
- Developed and refined investor outreach strategies based on in-depth business model and market analyses

Financial Analysis and Reporting

- Enhanced and regularly updated financial models and profit & loss (P&L) statements for a gas stations company, integrating the latest monthly sales data to improve accuracy, consistency, and financial transparency
- Developed multiple financial reporting sheets in Excel, including liquidity, budget, and credit tracking models, to enhance financial transparency and strategic planning
- Developed an executive reporting sheet to streamline data visualization and financial reporting, enabling more efficient decision-making processes at the company's board level

Venture Capital

- Conducted research on market trends, competitive landscapes, and business models to assess startup viability and support strategic discussions
- Evaluated inbound pitch decks through comprehensive company and market analysis, identifying high-potential investment opportunities
- Participated in founder meetings alongside INNOFINCENTA partners, contributing insights on scalability and market positioning during early investment evaluations

With a solid background in M&A and Corporate Finance, Mr. Do was able to quickly adapt to different business areas and deliver exceptional results basically from the start. His expertise in Microsoft Office applications, particularly Excel, enabled him to analyse, evaluate, and visualise complex financial data effectively. His ability to rapidly grasp complex topics, break them down methodically, and develop structured, efficient solutions underscored his exceptional analytical skills and problem-solving capabilities. Even in demanding situations, he approached tasks with great focus and effort, ensuring high-quality outcomes. His quick comprehension and ability to apply new concepts in practical scenarios were instrumental in the successful execution of various projects. With his active and reliable contributions to the day-to-day jobs he enabled the firm's partners to spend more time on client interaction and new business acquisition.

Mr. Do's work ethics, marked by a strong sense of duty, reliability, and adaptability, consistently exceeded our expectations. His calm, attentive, and pleasant demeanor made him a valued member of our team. He approached tasks with great focus and precision, ensuring high-quality outcomes while always maintaining a professional and respectful attitude. His ability to listen carefully, process information efficiently, and contribute thoughtful insights was highly appreciated. Throughout his internship, Mr. Do maintained exemplary professional conduct with clients, investors, and colleagues, leaving a lasting positive impact on our operations. Mr. Do was always open for feedback and able to turn constructive criticism into positive results on the spot.

We sincerely appreciate Mr. Do's outstanding contributions and commitment during his internship at INNOFINCENTA. His proactive mindset, ability to quickly familiarize himself with complex financial structures, and independent problem-solving skills allowed him to deliver high-quality results efficiently. He worked often independently for hours, sometimes days, when partners were not available for questions or comments. His results nevertheless were always prompt and as requested.

Beyond his technical expertise, Mr. Do's positive attitude, enthusiasm, and collaborative spirit made working with him both productive and enjoyable. His ability to connect different insights, structure information efficiently, and adapt swiftly to new challenges made him a valuable member of our team from day one onwards.

We are confident that he will continue to excel in his academic and professional pursuits and strongly recommend him to any future employer. We look forward to the possibility of working with Mr. Do again in the future and wish him continued success.
