RECOMMENDATION

Magnus Fußenegger, born on March 9, 2001, was employed as an intern in our company from March 1, 2026 until May 31, 2026. Magnus had the opportunity to work in our Advisory department.

The responsibilities of Magnus comprised the following tasks:

- Contributed to a cross-border merger between two international banking institutions, including due diligence activities, stakeholder mapping, and the preparation of board-level materials for senior stakeholders to facilitate integration planning and strategic decision-making
- Conducted financial, market, and competitor analysis across banking, energy, agriculture, and manufacturing sectors to support strategic decision-making, performance improvement, and transformation initiatives
- Contributed to the quantitative workstream of a large-scale finance and accounting transformation study, including data harmonization, KPI derivation, trend analysis, and the development of analytical visualizations
- Performed in-depth market and financial research to define model-relevant KPIs and refined performance benchmarking frameworks for energy providers, accounting for structural and geographical differences
- Analyzed large datasets to derive insights and strategic conclusions on AI adoption and digital transformation, including the development of an AI use case and strategic recommendations
- Coordinated project activities including timeline tracking, meeting preparation, and cross-functional collaboration across multiple jurisdictions

Magnus always diligently completed all assigned tasks to our highest satisfaction. We especially appreciate his diligence, his enthusiasm and initiative as well as his cooperative and helpful behavior. Due to his friendly, respectful and ambitious personality, Magnus was popular with his superiors and colleagues.

We had the opportunity to get to know Magnus as a very enthusiastic student and he proved to us multiple times that he has a very high potential for a promising career. We want to thank Magnus for the excellent collaboration and wish him all the best and good luck for his future career and his personal development.
