

REFERENCE LETTER

Mr. Friedrich Münch, born on 21.11.2005 in Frankfurt am Main, Germany, completed an internship from June 10th, 2024 to July 19th, 2024, in the Business Development department of Exaloan AG in Frankfurt.

Exaloan AG is a FinTech company based in Frankfurt am Main, Germany. As a technology service provider for institutional investors Exaloan enables its customers to invest in digital loans as a new asset class using its inhouse software platform Loansweeper. The digital credit market includes all loans that are granted by digital lending platforms using a digital infrastructure (www.exaloan.com).

In his position as part of the Business Development team, Mr. Münch was mainly responsible for the following activities:

- Supported research of prospective investors, loan originators and partners
- Supported the maintenance of databases
- Prepared client presentations
- Assisted the organization of a corporate event, which yielded one prospect client

Mr. Münch consistently performed his tasks autonomously to our fullest satisfaction. We appreciated him as a highly valuable member of our team. He has a great hands-on mentality and is very keen on independently taking on and executing tasks.

Mr. Münch has extensive experience. He demonstrated comprehensive, above-average knowledge and understanding of his field, found good solutions and contributed new ideas.

Mr. Münch demonstrated outstanding commitment in familiarizing himself with his new tasks and worked very consistently and highly successfully to achieve the agreed goals.

Mr. Münch's work was consistently characterized by a high degree of reliability, responsibility, and a systematic approach.

Mr. Münch's helpful, friendly manner was highly appreciated by his supervisors, colleagues and clients. His conduct was exemplary at all times.

Mr. Münch is leaving the company on July 19th, 2024 as previously agreed for a temporary collaboration.

We regret that Mr. Münch leaves our company. We would like to thank him for his extraordinary commitment, his valuable cooperation and the pleasant collaboration. We wish Mr. Münch all the best for the future, both professionally and personally.
