Data-driven. Entrepreneurial. Opinionated. hy is a new-generation consulting firm in the field of innovation, pricing, sales and digital transformation which supports executives in realizing their ambitious growth plans. Since its founding in 2017, hy has completed more than 400 projects for over 200 clients. hy is a legally independent subsidiary of Axel Springer SE, one of Europe's leading media and technology companies and a pioneer of digital transformation. Today, Axel Springer SE generates 95 percent of its profits with digital business models. Based on this experience, more than 50 digital experts, strategists, analysts and founders at hy support clients in identifying promising growth opportunities, developing and implementing new business opportunities, optimally monetizing existing and new business models, creating structures for continuous innovation and building a sustainable connection to the tech ecosystem.

During his tenure with our company, Mr Testrote was involved in the following tasks:

Large German Pharmaceuticals Manufacturer:

- Contributed to the development of a digital solution monetization strategy for a major global life sciences and pharmaceuticals player
- Created workshop exercises on ranking key value drivers
- Determined price points through customer willingness to pay and economic value estimation analysis
- Produced pertinent documentation for workshops with clients and final presentations

Manufacturer of Medical Care products:

- Created a pricing validation workshop for a leading medical care product manufacturer in close collaboration with the Pricing & Sales unit Partner
- Derived a recommended digital product monetization strategy
- Convinced the client to differentiate prices between customer groups to skim off willingness to pay more effectively, leading to higher revenues
- Created an applicable pricing prototype including client products and bundled them in the most suitable way
- Derived the price volume function and the revenue-optimal price point for the B2B software solution

Other:

- Created slide decks for three project pitches

Mr Testrote always acquired very good specialist knowledge within a very short time in the respective departments. He had a good ability to familiarise himself rapidly, which always enabled him to grasp even very complex training topics well within a short time. Mr Testrote always worked using his own initiative and completely identified with his responsibilities and our company at all times. He always displayed an impressive level of dedication and motivation. During the entire internship, Mr Testrote stood out because of his extremely high and excellent eagerness to learn. In extremely stressful situations, he always displayed exemplary resilience.

He was highly appreciated by our company because of his diligent and responsible way of working. Mr Testrote always was extremely reliable.

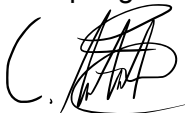

He always found good solutions for any problems which arose. The performance of Mr Testrote during his internship was always fully appreciated by us in every respect.

He was highly appreciated both inside and outside the company for his consistently friendly and even-tempered disposition. He was always helpful, courteous and even put his personal interests on hold if necessary. His conduct towards his line managers, supervisors, colleagues or towards clients was always exemplary and loyal. He was friendly and helpful towards other trainees at all times.

We would like to thank Mr Testrote for his consistently very good performance and wish him continued success and all the best for his future career and private life.
