

Reference Letter

To whom It may concern

It is our great pleasure to issue this letter of recommendation to Mr. Jannik Hennes, who completed a part-time internship in the Investment Banking division at FRONTIER Capital GmbH in Berlin from March 15, 2026, to May 31, 2026, and subsequently completed a full-time internship from June 1 2026 to July 3 2026.

Throughout his internship, Mr. Hennes supported our advisory team on multiple live sell-side transaction and origination topics quickly becoming a valued member of the deal team. He consistently demonstrated a level of analytical ability, professionalism, and commitment that exceeded our expectations.

During his internship, Mr. Hennes gained broad exposure in the execution of venture to mid-market M&A transactions and contributed across multiple transaction workstreams.

His responsibilities included:

- Supporting the execution of multiple live sell-side M&A transactions throughout the transaction process.
- Managing and maintaining VDRs (Intralinks), including organising, reviewing, uploading and quality-checking client information.
- Supporting due diligence processes by managing IRLs, reviewing due diligence materials, preparing internal summaries and ensuring confidentiality through document redaction.
- Supporting the preparation of Management Presentations and other transaction-related supporting materials.
- Conducting extensive market research, preparing industry analyses and creating company profiles of potential strategic and financial investors.
- Preparing longlists of strategic and financial investors, analysing strategic buyer fit and supporting investor outreach.
- Preparing and maintaining transaction tracking documents to support process management, bidder tracking and internal coordination.
- Designing and implementing an Airtable-based transaction management system to improve workflow transparency, project organisation and information management.
- Supporting bidder management, project coordination and additional analytical and operational tasks throughout the transaction lifecycle.

Mr. Hennes distinguished himself from the outset through his analytical mindset, fast comprehension and structured approach to problem-solving. He familiarised himself with complex M&A processes, financial documentation and due diligence procedures within a very short period of time and quickly became a reliable contributor to active transaction execution.

Mr. Hennes performed all duties entrusted to him at all times to our fullest satisfaction and consistently exceeded our expectations.

Considering his performance and professionalism, we are convinced that Mr. Hennes possesses an outstanding potential for a successful career within financial services.

We sincerely thank Mr. Hennes for his outstanding contribution to FRONTIER Capital. Working with him has been a pleasure, and we would welcome the opportunity to work with him again. We wish him every success in his academic studies and future professional career.
