

Internship Reference

Mr Leonard Honnef, born on 17 July 1995, was employed at our company from 1 August 2024 to 31 October 2024 as an Intern in the Retail department.

AlixPartners is a global firm of senior business and consulting professionals that specializes in improving corporate, financial and operational performance, executing corporate turnarounds and providing litigation consulting and forensic accounting services when it really matters in urgent, high-impact situations. Industry expertise and extensive experience in business processes coupled with in-depth financial and operational restructuring expertise enable AlixPartners to address the challenges faced by corporate, large and mid-sized companies. In many cases, experienced AlixPartners managers have taken on interim leadership roles in challenging business redevelopment. AlixPartners has around 3,000 employees worldwide at 25 offices.

During the tenure of his internship, Mr Honnef:

- Assisted the project team in optimizing a Danish subsidiary of a global supplier (€7B global revenue) in the train components sector
- Developed an Excel-based production and material planning tool in collaboration with Head of Production and Planning departments
- Rolled-out a new production planning process, including continuous coaching of Planning department
- Organized and led weekly meetings with the Head of Supply Chain and Head of Planning & Order Management
- Improved material availability in coordination with the warehouse team and managed production orders in SAP
- Contributed to weekly management reports, material demand analysis, capacity planning, and FTE estimation analysis

Mr Honnef always acquired good specialist knowledge within a very short time in the respective department. His ability to familiarise himself rapidly enabled him to grasp even complex training content swiftly. Mr Honnef always worked using his own initiative and fully identified with his responsibilities and our company at all times. He displayed a high level of dedication and motivation. Mr Honnef stood out because of his very great eagerness to learn during the entire internship. He always demonstrated resilience even in highly stressful situations.

We appreciated his careful and responsible attitude to work. Mr Honnef impressed us with his reliability.

He always found good solutions for any problems which arose. The performance of Mr Honnef during his entire internship was fully appreciated by us in every respect.

He was appreciated both inside and outside the company for his friendly and equable disposition. His conduct towards his line managers, supervisors, colleagues or towards clients was impeccable. He was friendly and helpful towards other trainees.

We would like to thank Mr Honnef for the consistently good and pleasant collaboration. We hope the period of training has reinforced his choice of profession and motivated him for the future as we believe he is very well-suited for his chosen profession. We wish Mr Honnef continued success and all the best for his future career and private life.
