Letter of Reference

To whom it may concern,

We are pleased to recommend Mr. Pfeiffer. We have worked with him during his internship in our Private Equity Audit department from 27/10/2025 to 31/03/2026.

His primary duties included the following:

- Performed substantive audit procedures across key areas including equity back-testing, cash testing, and expenses testing, by reconciling to supporting documentation and assessing the accuracy of recorded balances and accounting treatment.
- Recalculated management fees, supported waterfall related calculations, and recomputed interest on intercompany and third-party financing agreements in order to verify consistency of fund-level allocation, accruals, and debt balances.
- Reviewed legal, contractual and financial documentation relating to fund structures, financing agreements, and underlying transactions in order to confirm consistency between legal terms, transaction flows, and accounting treatment.
- Supported the execution of audit workstreams through direct liaison with Financial Controllers and other client-side contacts, follow-ups on outstanding items, and participation in documentation review sessions and on-site visits.

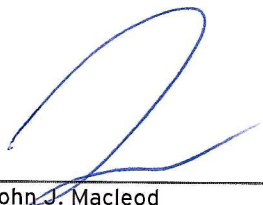

In his performance, Mr. Pfeiffer demonstrated excellent and highly versatile specialist knowledge, which he applied confidently and always in a targeted manner in practice at all times. Mr. Pfeiffer has excellent comprehension skills, a vast wealth of experience and has already been able to build up excellent specialist knowledge in the field of private equity. Particularly noteworthy is his highly developed analytical thinking, making him an always independent and balanced employee even in the most challenging situations.

Mr. Pfeiffer consistently distinguished himself through his exceptional commitment and his omnipresent willingness to take on additional responsibility. He was also able to cope with a hefty workload at all times. Mr. Pfeiffer always worked very prudently, absolutely conscientiously and consistently accurately. He demonstrated absolute and therefore outstanding reliability. Even for unforeseen problems, Mr. Pfeiffer always found the right solutions, which he, if necessary, always put into practice successfully. Overall, Mr. Pfeiffer always fulfilled the tasks assigned to him to our complete satisfaction in every respect.

Mr. Pfeiffer's personal conduct was impeccable at all times. Due to his absolute collegiality and omnipresent helpfulness, he was absolutely appreciated and always popular among superiors and colleagues. He was a model employee to our company, and we can give him the highest possible recommendation to any future employer. We wish him continued success and all the best for his future career.
