

Internship Certificate

Mr. Henri Hamed Krüppel,
born on 16 April 2003 in Neuss, worked from 1 September 2025 to 15 December 2025 as an intern in the Bank's Corporate Clients-International Corporates, Global Sectors & German MNC, Client Analytics. As part of his work placement Mr. Krüppel was entrusted with the following duties:

- Supporting the preparation of presentations on strategic dialogues (M&A, ECM) as well as financing topics (e.g. bonds, syndicated loans)
- Conducting business analyses on the basis of the balance sheet, P&L and CFS to identify suitable peer companies, calculation and benchmarking of relevant key figures (e.g. CCA, CTA) and supported on SOTP valuations
- Collaborated with senior bankers and multiple product teams on pitch materials
- Supported in the preparation for discussion materials with risk management
- Research of global company information, industry trends and transactions with focus on automotive suppliers and OEMs to support strategic discussions with clients
- Identified potential strategic buyers for an M&A sell-side transaction based on global market screenings
- Utilized databases such as FactSet, S&P Capital IQ and Bloomberg to gather and analyze financial data

During his work placement, Mr. Krüppel consistently exhibited a high level of commitment and motivation. Thanks to his strong interest in the job's specific topics and his above-average abilities, he quickly acquired outstanding practical knowledge.

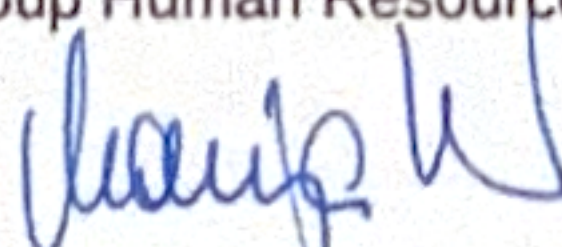

Mr. Krüppel was a conscientious and independent intern. He consistently performed the tasks assigned to him promptly, and his co-workers always appreciated his reliable way of working and helpful cooperation.

We were consistently satisfied with his performance in terms of its quality and quantity. His behaviour towards managers and co-workers was flawless at all times.

Today, Mr. Krüppel concludes his work placement at the Bank as agreed. We thank him for his consistently good work and wish him further success in both his professional and private life.

Frankfurt am Main, 15 December 2025

Commerzbank AG
Group Human Resources

Manja Richter