We are the Venture Studio of Accenture Song. We identify, define, launch and scale new, innovative businesses that stand out and scale up.

Your mission

As a Strategic Venturer Intern you will be a part of our Venture Academy. The Venture Academy is a 3-month internship program for creatives and strategists looking to gain hands-on experience in the world of venture building.

In our Life Sciences practice, we've had the privilege to work on an innovative project with a leading global pharmaceutical company, focused on tackling the often overlooked area of menopause. We ventured into uncharted territory, aiming to not only improve the health and wellbeing of countless women, but also to shatter long standing societal taboos. The ambition of this project was to build a new venture from the ground up, creating new pathways in women's health. In addition to our pioneering work in life sciences, our commitment to making a positive impact extends to other important causes. We proudly collaborate with various NGOs in projects dedicated to upholding and advancing children's rights, striving to secure a better, safer future for the next generation. This is a glimpse into the work we do – work that has a lasting impact, that challenges conventions, and that genuinely makes a difference.

At Accenture, you create an environment for you to flourish in – employing methods that align seamlessly with what you want to achieve in your career. You remain flexible as part of a team full of unique people who make a difference together.

Your daily work

- Building customer relationships and understanding customer needs: As a strategic venturer, you'll be working on a range of disciplines needed to build successful ventures, such as customer research or commercial analysis. You collaborate with our amazing people and work closely with creatives and developers across the whole process.
- Immerse yourself in our culture of innovation: You play a vital role as we breathe life into and actualize new projects. This gives you the opportunity to learn from outstanding innovators, understanding how novel concepts come alive and how we consistently make our projects distinguish themselves from the crowd.
- Be part of Accenture's talent network: You will also benefit from the Accenture talent network – with exciting events, workshops and the chance, to put yourself in a top position for the start of your career.

Who you are

We're looking for open, motivated, driven and proactive individuals with a willingness to learn and take on challenges in a dynamic and collaborative environment.

- You're ideally enrolled in a master's program, such as economics, business administration, digital transformation, or innovation management.
- Venture building and innovation methodologies are your passion. Therefore, you bring an entrepreneurial mindset with knowledge of startup and industry trends
- You show astute analytical and practical knowledge of commercial strategy, growth marketing, customer research (e.g. customer interviews, customer testing) and deep market research to formulate insights and analysis.
- Communication is your strong point, and you can express yourself clearly and confidently in both German and English. You feel comfortable at presenting your work and communicating your thoughts openly and with clarity.

Don't tick all the boxes? Apply anyway! We value potential and growth mindset over perfect matches, and believe flexibility fosters innovation.

What we offer

- Personal mentoring and on-the-job training. We'll help you enhance your skills, stretch beyond your comfort zone and gain a better understanding of the venture building world.
- An open and dynamic environment for your ideas, challenges and growth opportunities.
- Exciting employee events. We value our time together and have weekly team lunches, after-work drinks, team events and coffee walks.
- A diverse and inclusive work culture
