

REFERENCE LETTER

Mr. Troels Enigk was employed at Getsafe GmbH as a Strategy Working Student from 14.04.2025 to 31.05.2025, and subsequently as a Strategy Intern from 01.06.2025 to 15.09.2025.

Getsafe is a digital insurance company that creates a better insurance experience for everyone. Powered by its unique technological platform, Getsafe makes insurance simple, fair and accessible. As Getsafe replaces complexity and manual paperwork with smart bots and automation, customers can file claims or change their coverage in real time with just a few clicks.

Since launching in Germany in 2018, Getsafe has become one of the best-rated InsurTechs in Europe, serving over 550,000 customers. In 2021, Getsafe received its insurance license from Germany's financial regulator, BaFin. With €120 million raised to date, it is one of Europe's top 10 funded InsurTechs.

Mr. Troels Enigk's tasks and responsibilities included, among others:

- Drove the development of a regulatory analysis (DORA, AI Act) in the context of the company's transition from a BaFin-licensed insurer to an MGA platform, which served as a key input for discussions with external counsel and subsequent management decisions.
- Initiated and supported cost optimization initiatives (e.g., SaaS tools, process improvements), contributing to significant annual savings and enabling further scaling across the organization.
- Rebuilt and replaced existing tools (e.g., VSOP tracker, risk management system) to enable significant cost savings, and implemented n8n-based automations for the P&O Team, substantially reducing administrative workload.
- Prepared and presented a go-to-market concept for potential B2B2C partnerships in Travel Health Insurance, including value proposition, market analysis, and shortlist of prospective partners.
- Worked closely with the top management team on strategic and operational projects across P&O, Marketing, Finance, and Legal, thereby contributing to cross-functional initiatives and decision-making.

Mr. Enigk possesses exceptionally comprehensive and in-depth expertise, which he consistently applied with confidence and great success in accomplishing his responsibilities. He quickly familiarized himself with new tasks and pursued the agreed objectives with sustained commitment and outstanding results.

He was a highly motivated employee who approached even complex assignments with great enthusiasm and always developed appropriate and practical solutions. Moreover, he proved to be extremely reliable, and his working style was consistently characterized by careful planning and a systematic approach.

In addition, Mr. Enigk worked with remarkable efficiency and focus, demonstrating excellent organizational skills. His results were consistently of high quality, even under changing requirements or challenging circumstances. He also demonstrated impressive resilience during periods of exceptionally high workload, always acting thoughtfully, calmly, and purposefully.

Mr. Enigk was equally valued by supervisors, colleagues, and business partners. He consistently demonstrated loyalty to the company and distinguished himself through personal integrity. His conduct was exemplary at all times, and he contributed significantly to excellent and effective teamwork.

He consistently completed all assigned tasks to our fullest satisfaction.

Mr. Enigk's employment with our company concluded at the end of the agreed-upon period. We sincerely thank Mr. Enigk for his outstanding contributions and cooperation, and we wish him every success and all the best in both his professional and personal future.
