Mr Nouraldein Altannir born on 07.01.2003, was actively employed as an external employee in our company in the period from 01.08.2024 to 01.10.2024. Here, Mr Altannir was able to apply the specialist knowledge and skills he acquired during his studies to add value to his work with us

Our company is a medium-sized printing company based in Riyadh. With more than 15 years of experience, our printing house is one of the oldest in the industry and we were the first to introduce colour printing. We are currently focussing on innovation and sustainability in order to shape the future of our industry in an environmentally friendly way.

Mr Altannir is characterised by his innovative and future-oriented way of thinking, which he has actively brought into the planning process through in-depth suggestions. Our print shop is currently undergoing an internal transformation to make production more sustainable and of higher quality.

Our customers include a large number of medium-sized companies from the region as well as major regional corporations.

As part of his employment, Mr Altannir was responsible for the following tasks;

- Designing the layout and warehouse planning for a new production hall of our printing plant
- Researching possible new printing machines for the decision templates for C-level management for purchasing
- Development of resource planning through new suppliers and machines
- Conducting internal and external negotiations.

During his employment in our company, Mr Altannir has shown that he has an extraordinary knowledge and skillset, which he uses very effectively and successfully in practice. He was able to help us a great deal with his results, as this enabled us to move from planning to implementation.

Mr Altannir's impressive versatility and perceptiveness enabled him to overcome difficult situations. At the same time, he kept an overview at all times under high pressure and acted calmly and appropriately. At all times he showed high motivation, initiative and a very high level of commitment.

We would like to thank Mr Altannir for his valuable work and his above-average support. We wish him continued success and all the best for his professional and private future.
