

REFERENCE OF INTERNSHIP

Mr. Troels Enigk, born on 22.03.2002 in Essen, completed an internship as Associate Consultant with our company between 01.10.2025 and 19.12.2025.

Eraneos Strategy GmbH is a renowned strategy consulting firm based in Düsseldorf, which, since its rebranding in September 2025, has established a strong presence within the Eraneos Group and in the market. The company boasts an established and diverse portfolio of prominent clients in the energy, insurance, banking, and telecommunications sectors. Its consulting focus lies in developing sustainable growth, transformation, service, and sales strategies. Through its affiliation with the Eraneos Group, the company's service portfolio has been expanded to include proven technology and implementation expertise, as well as international delivery capabilities. Since then, clients have benefited from holistic and future-oriented solutions across the entire value chain.

Within the scope of his activities at Eraneos Strategy, Mr. Enigk's tasks focused on the following areas:

➤ Contribution to a group-wide New Work program focused on space and organizational optimization at a leading German bank

- Prepared strategic decision materials for infrastructure investments (approx. €2.5m) and supported the development of the underlying business cases
- Developed cost projections for major site-wide refurbishments (planning volume approx. €1.5m) and aligned key planning assumptions with the client
- Redesigned the site-wide budget steering framework (budget approx. €75m), enhancing decision reliability, transparency, and reducing error risk
- Contributed to multiple board presentations on site strategy, including the identification and quantification of high single-digit million-euro savings potential (approx. €7m), and conducted analyses of space costs, workforce distribution, and New Work effects
- Analyzed organization-wide feedback on the New Work concept and derived prioritized measures to advance the transformation program
- Created structured guidelines to ensure efficient processes and to support the consistent rollout of New Work initiatives
- Developed targeted stakeholder communication and support materials to facilitate the site-wide implementation of the New Work concept

➤ Development of a presentation on the German insurance industry for Europe's leading insurance trade fair

- Independently conceptualized and developed a comprehensive presentation on the structure and functioning of the German health insurance system (SHI/PHI) for an international conference, including market, competitive, and trend analyses

➤ Contribution to proposal development in the insurance sector

- Supported the development of a proposal for a global leading insurer to redesign the broker end-to-end process with the goal of reducing the time-to-offer from several days to under 24 hours

- Contributed to a proposal for a Swiss insurer as part of a post-merger integration

Mr. Enigk contributed his excellent analytical and conceptual skills to the project work to an extraordinarily high degree and was outstandingly convincing with regard to both the quality and the quantity of his work. Particularly remarkable is his ability to extremely support the work of project teams both within the scope of ongoing consulting projects and with regard to acquisition activities.

The tasks assumed by Mr. Enigk were characterized by an outstanding structure, efficiency and comprehensive planning. He always acted in a calm, reflected, target-oriented and extremely precise manner. His extraordinary reliability was remarkable at all times.

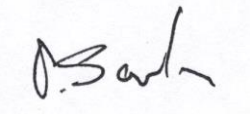

Mr. Enigk showed a pronounced individual initiative, extremely identified himself with his tasks and our company, and convinced us with his outstanding commitment and passion. Even in times of challenging workloads, he kept an extraordinarily high degree of resilience and achieved highest-quality results. He always accomplished the tasks assigned to him to our utmost satisfaction.

Mr. Enigk presented himself as an extremely committed employee, who always showed extraordinary interest in his work. He was extremely helpful, extremely courteous and proved to have an exemplary ability to work in a team. His friendly and open-minded personality earned him highest recognition and esteem among clients, superiors and colleagues alike.

Due to the very good collaboration with Mr. Enigk, we have decided to include him in our promotion program for interns, the "Fast Track".

We sincerely thank Mr. Enigk for his outstanding commitment in our company and wish him only the best for his further studies and continued success for his professional career. We unreservedly recommend Mr. Enigk as an extraordinary employee and would be glad to welcome him to our company again,
