A GLOBAL LEADING ASSET MANAGER WITH A DIVERSE & INCLUSIVE CULTURE

As the Global Asset Management business of Prudential, we're always looking for ways to improve financial services. We're passionate about making a meaningful impact - touching the lives of millions and solving financial challenges in an ever-changing world.

We also believe talent is key to achieving our vision and are intentional about building a culture on respect and collaboration. When you join PGIM, you'll unlock a motivating and impactful career – all while growing your skills and advancing your profession at one of the world's leading global asset managers!

If you're not afraid to think differently and challenge the status quo, come and be a part of a dedicated team that's investing in your future by shaping tomorrow today.

At PGIM, You Can!

WHAT YOU WILL DO

The position offers students the chance to build their analytical skills and expand their knowledge of private credit investments for 3-6 months. You will enhance your business skills and learn about private debt investing, asset management and the capital markets in PPC's Frankfurt Office. The job offers hands-on experience within private placements, direct lending, and infrastructure investing.

The Intern will have the opportunity to assist on screening new transactions and with portfolio management. This includes analyzing business models and relating financials, understanding the competitive environment within industries, and writing parts of investment proposals. There will be ongoing training throughout the internship.

We encourage applicants from all course disciplines with a keen interest in finance and how businesses work.

WHAT YOU WILL BRING

- Academic background: At a minimum later semesters of Bachelor's degree studies, preferably in Business Administration, Finance, or a related field
- Proficiency in MS Office tools, particularly in Word and Excel
- Strong analytical abilities, as well as excellent teamwork and interpersonal skills
- Fluent in German and English, in speaking and writing
- Attention to detail, with a focus on delivering accurate and high-quality work

We know not everyone will meet 100% of the requirements, however we encourage you to apply if you think your skills are a good fit for this role.

WHAT WILL SET YOU APART

- Strong sense of self-motivation and ownership
- Ability to function in a team-oriented setting as well as demonstrating your own initiative
- Self-starter with ability to work independently while communicating frequently
- High energy, enthusiasm, initiative, curiosity
- Eagerness to learn and contribute, with an open-minded attitude toward working on a variety of projects

WHY YOU WANT TO JOIN US

- Offering flexibility and individuality, our opportunities align with the unique needs of our work, clients, teams, and lives.
- We understand that every role has its distinct requirements, so our managers treat their team as individuals, finding the way that works best for them to perform at the top of their game.
- We're not just talking about family friendliness. The majority of our employees have families; we enable flexible working hours while maintaining an in-office culture at the centrally located workplace in the heart of Frankfurt which is accessible with S-Bahn, subway or tram.
- With us, you can broaden your expertise and experience. We offer you interesting and varied tasks in an international and multicultural working environment.
- Work is not everything! That's why we regularly organize informative office events, summer parties and Christmas parties.
- We support you in all situations! Together with partner companies as well as mental health first aiders, we offer life coaching, child and emergency care and individual assistance in challenging life situations.
- We are aware of our responsibility! The real estate industry is responsible for a large part of the global CO2 emissions - PGIM Real Estate has set itself ambitious goals to change something and you can make your contribution!
